Dear Ted

Thanks for the regular updates!

We plan to make censorship issues a regular feature of DESIRE magazine — rather than an occasional thing, such as the Nova porn debate (issue 32, page 5).

We'd also like to list the primary anti-censorship campaign groups. In addition to NCROPA, Feminists Against Censorship and Sexual Freedom Coalition, we'd like to list Campaign Against Censorship.

So could you drop me a line or a fax with whatever details of CAC you wish to provide: address, phone/ fax, email/ website. So if readers wanted to contact CAC, whether SAE is required, membership fees, etc. Plus a brief description of CAC's aims (or a mission statement, as the Yanks seem to call it nowadays), ideally around 20-30 words.

If possible, we'd like the details by Friday 25.

Best wishes

Ian Jackson

PS — Chatting to David Webb the other day, I mentioned the MelonFarmers website. He said you were online, so if you haven't already discovered it, it's a superb source of info on all matters relating to censorship in the UK. www.melonfarmers.co.uk
